

If Prince, Lady Gaga, David Bowie and Lenny Kravitz were to make a "Love Child", it would be Lord KraVen. A soul-fusion singer-songwriter, known for his avant-garde style, who hails from the City of Angels.

His blend of raw sensuality, combined with his four octave vocal range and stylized mannerisms, and charisma, is just what the music doctor ordered. There is no doubt, that this debonair, sexy rising star possesses the "staying power" and international appeal such as his predecessors, James Brown, Prince, Grace Jones, David Bowie and Lenny Kravitz. "My approach to music is speaking from heart, experiences and inspiration. I want to create anthems empower and uplift the souls of the lost and hopeless around the world", says the singer.

Lord KraVen's unorthodox and avant-garde persona and distinctive music style has been often compared to the likes of his music icon Prince and David Bowie. His latest singles, "Mirror-Mirror", "Gorilla" and "Kabila" premiered on Seasons 10, 12 and 14 of Fox television's hit dance competition, "So You Think You Can Dance".

Lord KraVen has been featured in numerous publications such as, Cosmopolitan Magazine, Star Magazine, The Huffington Post and The Los Angeles Times, just to name a few. His acting and musical talents has landed him guest spots on HLN's "Showbiz Tonight" (w/ A.J. Hammer), "KTLA 5 Morning Show" (Grammy Predictions w/ Lord KraVen) and the Emmy Award-winning daytime series, "The Young & The Restless", and "ER".

When Lord KraVen is not on set filming, recording, or performing live, you can often catch him lending his support to children charities such as; Operation Smile, Children's Hospital of Los Angeles, and Britti-Cares.

Stay tuned, as the story of this emerging music icon, continues.
